Biographical or Historical Information

The Brandeis University Health Center is a division of the Department of Student Affairs and is responsible for student health at the University. The Health Center is overseen by a director who reports to the Dean of Student Affairs. The University administration eliminated many services and programs operated by the Health Center during the summer of 1998, outsourcing much of their work to the former Waltham-Deaconess Hospital.

Scope and Contents

The files in this collection were created from 1962 through 2004 and include memos, reports, announcements, and incomplete runs of two newsletters produced by the Health Center, "To Your Health" and "Wellness on Campus." Many of the files described to the campus the services and programs that the Health Center provided. The newsletters also provided general health information including suggestions for healthy living.
