Biographical or Historical Information

Professor William Goldsmith taught at Brandeis University from 1960 to 1984 as a professor of Politics and American Civilization. He began his post-secondary education with a B.A. from St. John's College and finished with a doctorate in Public Law and Government from Columbia University. In addition to teaching, Goldsmith initiated and participated in numerous programs and committees at Brandeis. His most significant publications include The Brandeis Papers Commission and The Growth of Presidential Power

Scope and Contents

The bulk of these files were created from 1965 to 1969. Research material for the Louis Brandeis Papers date from 1899 to 1969. The collection contains biographical data, correspondence, reports, manuscripts, coursework material, research materials, drafts, publication materials, and general files. A large portion of this collection is related to Goldsmith's work at Brandeis and the programs he initiated. Many of these programs, such as Upward Bound and TYP, were focused on the issues of educating the disadvantaged. The collection also contains the research materials he used to produce three of his publications - a guide to the microfilm edition of the Louis Brandeis Papers, his book, "The Growth of Presidential Power," and an article, "The President and Congress at Mid-Century."
