Biographical or Historical Information

Brandeis University was founded as the first non-sectarian, Jewish-sponsored university in the United States. The original Board of Trustees of Brandeis took over the charter and campus of the closing Middlesex University in 1947 and held its first classes in the Fall of 1948. The University graduated its first undergraduate class in 1952, and in 1953 the University opened its Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

Materials in this collection include correspondence, reports, speeches, programs, invitations, certificates, press releases, photographs, press clippings and posters created from 1937 through 2007. Subjects include the official inauguration of Brandeis University and the installation of Brandeis' first president, Abram Sachar, in 1948; the inauguration of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences in 1953; and the celebration of the University's fortieth anniversary, along with some material from other anniversary celebrations. In addition there are general histories and descriptions of the university dealing primarily with the early days of the university, and press clippings of news articles concerning Brandeis throughout its history. Also included are materials documenting controversial events in the University's history. This collection is made up of files that came from a variety of sources.

Collection Inventory

General History, 1937-2016, undated

Date: 1937-2016, undated

Scope and Contents

Materials in this series include correspondence, reports, speeches, press clippings, photographs, flyers, and posters. These items cover primarily the early years of Brandeis University -- including its predecessor, Middlesex University -- but some document more recent events and developments. Of note are materials that address the by-laws of the University and information concerning C. Ruggles Smith. Other files include brief histories and descriptions of the origins and character of the University, awards ceremonies, guest lecturers and lectureship series, Brandeis songs, the construction of a bust of Louis D. Brandeis, and correspondence dealing with a wide range of subjects.

Anniversaries, 1967-2016

Date: 1967-2016

Scope and Contents

Materials in this series include programs, schedules, certificates, videos, Brandeis publications, press clippings, and CDs commemorating Brandeis anniversaries. Most of the 50th anniversary materials are programs announcing celebration events and publications reviewing the history of the University; also included is a recording of a concert performance honoring the occasion. Files concerning the 40th anniversary celebration include transcripts of speeches given at the anniversary convocation, memos and meeting minutes of the advisory committee on the 40th anniversary, and personal reminiscences of alumni, staff, faculty, and others associated with the university. Additional material in this series includes reprints of the 1948 inauguration for the University's 30th anniversary, a program for the 35th anniversary, notes and memos concerning the development of a 20th anniversary yearbook, programs for the 10th and 15th anniversaries, and programs, publicity materials, posters, and memorabilia from the Louis D. Brandeis Sesquicentennial celebration.
