Lucille Frank Correspondence

Scope and Contents

This series consists of letters written to and from Lucille Frank. Many are from strangers indignant over the unfairness of her husband's trial. Lucille Frank wrote numerous thank-you letters, and in some letters wrote of her marriage and her husband with great feeling, providing valuable information and insight.

Governor John M. Slaton Correspondence

Scope and Contents

The bulk of this series are letters written to Gov. Slaton asking him to commute Leo Frank's sentence of the death penalty. This series illustrates how many people felt Leo Frank had been tried unfairly.
