Scope and Contents

The collection concerns the writings, rituals, and correspondence of E.M. Broner. The component relating to the writings of E.M. Broner includes manuscripts and published books, articles, stories, and poetry. It also includes criticism, reviews, and publicity of E.M. Broner's work as well as her reviews of the work of other authors.

A second component relates to E.M. Broner's rituals and includes sources of information used in the construction of her rituals and texts, photographs, recordings, and artifacts related to the rituals, particularly the Women's Seder and Women's Haggadah.

A third important component includes the correspondence of E.M Broner with her associates and family.
